

Why you need to be tested for cancer

Test for Breast Cancer

Breast Screening

For women who are between 50 and 74.

In Victoria you can get a test to see if you have breast cancer.

It is free.

You should do the test every two years.

Book through BreastScreen Victoria.

Call 13 20 50 or visit breastscreen.org.au

Talk to your doctor or someone you trust about cancer screening
Finding cancer early means you have a better chance to live longer